A bruised, broken reed, is an emblem of the poor and oppressed. It means that he would not oppress the feeble and poor, as victorious warriors and conquerors did. It is also an expressive emblem of the soul, broken and contrite on account of sin, weeping and mourning for transgression. He will not break it.

Jesus could have called down fire from heaven and destroyed them all, Jesus could have called down legions of angels to his aid, but a bruised reed he will not break and smoking flax he will not quench. Some scholars suggest that this prophecy is about God's enemies, those that oppose the will of God.

Joss Stone - Bruised But Not Broken Lyrics | Genius Lyrics

Why Bruised But Not Broken? Because dear ones, life is hard! We are not promised a stress free, pain free life. Actually the opposite is true. "We are pressed on every side by troubles , but we are not crushed. We are perplexed, but not driven to despair. We are hunted down, but never abandoned by God.
