and again in DELIVER US FROM EVIL, those who ignore history are doomed to repeat it. The implicit message in DELIVER US FROM EVIL is that liberals ignore the lessons of history because those lessons conflict with their worldview. Appeasement of evildoers, as every schoolboy knows, does not work. It did not work for Neville Chamberlain when

Deliver Us from Evil: Defeating Terrorism, Despotism, and ...

'Deliver Us from Evil' is a wonderful history book. It reminds us all about the evil in the world by reviewing what happened in Hitler's Germany, Cold War Communism, and Saddam's Iraq. Many today forget these lessons and want to appease current evil by looking the other way or trying to negotiate with them.

Deliver Us From Evil: Defeating Terrorism, Despotism, and ...

Ultimately, the meaning of "Deliver us from evil" is not found in a dissection of the individual words but in the general direction of the clause. Satan is ultimately behind all evil, so it makes little difference whether we are to ask for deliverance from evil in general (sin) or from the evil one, specifically, since the two are related.
