Urban legends and Doctor Who are a match made in heaven, and that's the case with The Shining Man. Overall, The Shining Man really surprised me. I expected a typical, mediocre tie-in novel, and ended up getting an engaging, entertaining, captivating mystery with dynamic characters who instantly drew me into their stories and lives.

Despite the versatility of Doctor Who that virtually allows it to be about almost anything, the subject/theme of 'The Shining Man' is one that it hasn't explored very often. It is certainly more in the realm of fantasy and magic rather than science fiction, if you choose to draw a clear distinction.
