While it is true that the translations are quite different, they aren't so different that you should wait to read it.

Don Quixote In Translation

And if the story of the responses to Don Quixote isn't sufficiently fecund, its adventure in translation is proof of its vitality, but also of the acrimony it has left in its wake. Of course, translating a classic, any classic, ends up generating enough rage for at least a fistfight, if not enough to mobilize an army.
