Charlotte Brontë | Poetry Foundation

The poem, Evening Solace, dramatizes the conflict between the speaker's current vs. past emotions. From Charlotte Brontë, it introduces the speaker's emotions and thoughts by reflecting the his or her life and how the person tried to move on with life.

British Literature: Evening Solace

One of the most famous Victorian women writers, and a prolific poet, Charlotte Brontë is best known for her novels, including Jane Eyre (1847), her most popular. Like her contemporary Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Brontë experimented with the poetic forms that became the characteristic modes of the Victorian period—the long narrative poem and the dramatic monologue—but unlike Browning ...
