States of Matter Class 11 Notes Chemistry Chapter 5 • Intermolecular Forces Intermolecular forces are the forces of attraction and repulsion between interacting particles have permanent dipole moments. This interaction is stronger than the London forces but is weaker than ion-ion interaction because only partial charges are involved. The attractive forces decrease with the increase [...]

2. Gaseous exchange relies on diffusion. To be efficient, the gaseous exchange surface must: - thin - shorter distance to diffuse - moist - allow gases to dissolve - large surface area - have a concentration gradient across surface - maintained by movement of air and transport/ use of gas. These features are present in gills (fish) and alveoli (lungs).

Equilibrium Class 11 Notes Chemistry Chapter 7 • Chemical Equilibrium In a chemical reaction chemical equilibrium is defined as the state at which there is no further change in concentration of reactants and products. For example, At equilibrium the rate of forward reaction is equal to the rate of backward reaction. Equilibrium mixture: The mixture [...]

Gases And Gas Law Grade 11 Physics | Notes | Khullakitab

Gaseous state of matter: The most mobile state of matter is the gaseous state having the following characteristics: 1. The gas molecules neither have fixed shape nor have fixed volume both being determined by the volume of the container. 2.The gas is highly compressible in nature because of large intermolecular space between them.

Gaseous exchange - Biology Notes for IGCSE 2014

This equation is used to determine molecular mass from gas data. Example: A liquid can be decomposed by electricity into two gases. In one experiment, one of the gases was collected. The sample had a mass of 1.090 g, a volume of 850 mL, a pressure of 746 torr, and a temperature of 25 o C. Calculate its molecular mass.
