What does God want from me? | GotQuestions.org

Trust me. With the demands of life and ministry, that's not always easy. But I've had to settle in my mind and heart that God wants all of me, not part of me. It's not about my conveniences, but it's about doing His will and making sure that I fulfill it in His timing. And so if it's important to Him, then it's important to me.
