The Most Dangerous Game - Pottstown School District

Richard Connell (1893-1949) was an American author and journalist. This short story, which is his most famous, is an action-adventure tale inspired partly by the big-game safari tours in Africa and South America that were popular in the 1920s. This tale was also influenced by Connell's experience in World War I, which may have contributed to the story's message.
