Why Foods Cause Heart Palpitations. Feeling palpitations after eating is a relatively common experience, which tends to occur when a substance in your food or drink—or your body's natural biochemical response to that substance—jolts the heart's electrical system and causes fluttering sensations, skipped beats, or a feeling that your heart is beating too hard or too fast.

Mumbo jumbo, or mumbo-jumbo, is confusing or meaningless language. The phrase is often used to express humorous criticism of middle-management, and specialty jargon, such as legalese, that non-specialists have difficulty in understanding. For example, "I don't understand all that legal mumbo jumbo in the fine print."
