Perfect Remains (A DI Callanach Thriller, Book 1) Review. This is a sick book, and I hope to heavens it does not sell well enough to make publishers think that it is to the average person's taste. I enjoyed this book. Anyone who enjoys a good murder mystery from both law and murder's viewpoint will like it. Interesting characters.

4.5 A real page-turner and first in a new series, Perfect Remains is a gripping crime/thriller set in Scotland (3). It is fast-paced, gruesome and tense, with well-developed characters, sans unnecessary details. Usually I hate when the identity of the culprit is revealed in the beginning, but with this one i was hooked till the last page.
