I actually just got a service manual download from a place called tradebit.com it cost $7.99 and was a pdf download wasn't sure about so I bought a Chlymer manual also. But I have to say the tradebit one is very thourough was 385 pages I think it might actually be a Polaris factory manual, some of the pages had the Polaris trademark on them.

My service manual from Tech Sparks came in last night and had very blurry pictures. Do not recommend buying if have a renegade 800 or 1000 model. However, I emailed them this morning and included some pics of their manual and already got a response back offering to give me a full refund. At least good customer service.
