The Limits Of Neoliberalism Authority

"A sparkling, original, and provocative analysis of neoliberalism. It offers a distinctive account of the diverse, sometimes contradictory, conventions and justifications that lend authority to the extension of the spirit of competitiveness to all spheres of social life...This book breaks new ground, offers new modes of critique, and points to post-neoliberal futures."

Many have noted the enigma of neo-liberalism's survival after 2008 (for example, Crouch, 2011; Overbeek and van Apeldoorn, 2012; Peck, 2013). After all, 'the market' utterly failed to stabilise the global financial system, and governments took over this task applying instruments that violated every rule in the neoliberal book and that would have been unthinkable before the fall of 2008.
